

Charles Andrew Panerio

December 27, 1937 - August 15, 2013

CHARLES A. PANERIO

Charles A. Panerio, 75, of Ephrata, Washington, passed away on August 16, 2013. Chuck was a loving and giving father, husband, brother and friend. He leaves behind a legacy of inspirational leadership and service. Chuck “PAPA TIGER” was not just a coach. Chuck instilled all of his personal values in combination with integrity, quality and character to achieve his personal best. He required the same from others with such patience, loyalty, and confidence. This legacy has affected many and will always be cherished in the hearts of his family and friends.

Charles Andrew Panerio was born December 27, 1937 to Major and Margaret Panerio. Roslyn, Washington is where it all began for Chuck. A coal miner’s son, his hard-working roots laid the foundation for his future success. The Panerio family household worked harmoniously alongside each other keeping in mind both the common good and the welfare of one’s family and friends.

Music was instrumental to Charlie and his strong Italian community was dear to his heart. He met the love of his life Helen, his junior year. After graduating from Cle Elum-Roslyn High School in 1956, he attended and graduated Central Washington University, Ellensburg, Washington in 1960, with a degree in Physical Education.

Chuck took his first teaching position at Ephrata High School in 1960. Chuck and Helen were married in 1961 and made Ephrata their home. Chuck and Helen had three children Deona, Tony, and Krista.

Throughout his 30-year career of teaching and coaching, Chuck received numerous awards and recognition. Charlie loved athletics and thrived on the thrills that sports demanded. Athletics filled his soul and shaped his outlook on life. He was especially honored by his 2010 induction into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

He is survived by his two daughters, Deona Behrens, husband Bob with their children Beau and Chase, Krista Panerio and husband Justin Moody; sister Leona Malcolm; brother Robert Panerio and his wife Charlotte; and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by wife Helen Panerio; son Tony Panerio; and his parents Major and Margaret Panerio.

He tenderly loved his family, friends, and the “TIGER TOWN” of Ephrata. He will be missed and remembered for how he brought the best out in all of us. In his own words “know that I did my best and believe in the Lord to bring me victory.” Services will be held at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, 1012 C Street S.W. in Ephrata on Friday, August 23, 2013 at 10:30 a.m. Burial will be held later that day, at The Memorial Garden Cemetery in Roslyn,

Wash. A reception in his honor will follow in the banquet room next to the PANERIO
ROOM at The Suncadia Resort in Roslyn, Wash.

Giving was a part of Charlie’s life. To continue the mission, memorial contributions can be made in Chuck’s name to either Ephrata Public Library, or Ephrata Senior Center.

“ Deona and Krista and the entire extended Panerio family..... I joined you all well over 30 years ago. The big mouth Irish Girl w/ no social graces. Uncle Chuck never once made me feel less than special in those early years. I remember the last time I saw him.. he grab the back of my neck and said.."family, you know you need to put them first before anything - nothing is more important, don't forget that". Thank you Uncle Chuck for the best advice. Deona and Krista - my heart remains heavy for you. xox See you soon! Coleen

“ "Certainly there are many good things to say about Chuck Panerio. He produced winning teams, produced many fine athletes and some champions. Yet, that is not what totally defined the man. What defined Chuck was that he was always fair and inspired all to do their best. Chuck had the ability to take a sow's ear and turn it into a silk purse."

“ I have fond memories of Chuck Panerio, my high school wrestling coach. I felt he truly cared about me and sought to bring out the best in me. Perhaps the last time I saw Chuck was at my father's memorial service in Ephrata. Chuck was a good-hearted man. May God comfort and bless his family.

“ Mr. Panerio was such a sincerely kind and loving man. He taught my husband, Jay in school and our son, Rocky in the 5th grade. Whenever I ran into him in town, he would take time to visit and ask about Jay and Rocky and then tell me what was going on with him. My heart ached for him the times that we talked about the sudden death of his son, Tony and also his Wife from cancer. He was such a good man. We will surely miss him.

“ Can there be a truer measure of greatness in a teacher and coach than this: students and players wanted to do better to please him. That was Chuck Panerio.

“ Deona and family, I have many great fun filled memories of us kids growing up on Crest Drive. Your parents were the coolest, most outgoing parents on the block. I pray that your memories are filled with laughter and your heart filled with peace because Chuck Panerio was one of the "good guys" in this world.

“ Prayers to the Panerio Family. Mr. Panerio was such a lovely man I met him when his wife Helen passed away He came into the Funeral home where I was working and, it seemed like we just clicked. Every time I saw him he always had a smile for me and a hug. It didn't matter what he was going through at any given time He always asked about how I was feeling and how I was doing. Chuck always put everyone needs in front of his own. He will be missed by everyone that knew him.

“ Prayers and sympathy to Coach Panerio's family. I loved playing baseball for Coach in '66 and '67. His unmistakable voice still rings in my ears when I find myself loafing around. Dillon!! What are you going to do next, where you throwing the ball, what's happening next, get those feet moving, what are you doing? OK, If you are not sure let's do laps. Rest In Peace Coach. You will be missed. Dan Dillon

“ Mr. Panerio was the P.E. teacher when I was in high school at Ephrata. One simple memory was when we played the game where two opposing lines of people, on command, throw those soft rubber basketball-sized balls at the opposite side, trying to hit them without them catching the balls. Mr. Panerio always used the term "fire at will" but our class had a member named Will so it was a big joke. Did he teach another subject besides P.E.?

Steve Dahlin - August 21, 2013 at 11:27 AM

“ Chuck was a fantastic teacher and neighbor, and I was fortunate enough to have had him as both, a teacher and a neighbor.

I have lots of memories of Chuck as a teacher and neighbor, but the one most recent that comes to mind is that Mom still lives on Crest Drive, and Chuck would come over and clean the snow off Mom's driveway even before Mom was up sometimes. She would always wonder why. Sometimes it became a race for her to get out there before Chuck got over. It was just because that's who Chuck was.

“ I can remember when Chucky (as we called him grew within shouting distance of our homes in Roslyn. I went to school with his sister Leona. When I learned Chuck became a teacher I thought OL LORDY! I did follow some of his activities at Ephrata & also heard from My nieces & Nephews what a great teacher he was & coach. Chuck will be deeply missed & My sympathy goes out to the families he leaves. REST IN PEACE CHUCK.

“ My deepest sympathy on the loss of a great man and human being. I met Mr. Panerio in 1963, I was 13. He was my PE teacher. The first thing he said to me was "Herron, get a haircut". I will miss him. He instilled in me to never give up. Rest in Peace.
