

Elizabeth V Malloy

November 30, 1917 - November 11, 2013

Elizabeth V. Malloy, 95, died peacefully on Monday, November 11, 2013 at McKay Healthcare and Rehab in Soap Lake, WA.

Beth was born to Allie Bess Vaughn and Arlen Hoyle Vaughn on November 30, 1917 in Athens, Tennessee. She had dear memories of living on the farm, she loved her family, and enjoyed dancing at her favorite spots, the Soap Lake Businessmen's Club and the Ephrata Eagles.

She is survived by her daughter, Joyce Mensing of Ephrata, Washington; her son, Jack Greene of Woodbine, Maryland; Stepchildren Tandy Lynn Floyd and Timothy Haven Malloy; her sister, Frances Geenen, of Reno, Nevada; and many loving relatives throughout the country.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Robert Malloy, of Ephrata, Washington; her brother, Avery Vaughn of North Carolina; and her sister, Martha Oltmanns, of Terra Bella, California.

A service will be held at 2:30pm on Friday, November 15 at Nicole's Funeral Home in Ephrata, Washington.

A special thank you to the nursing and entire staff at McKay healthcare for all your loving care. Beth loved you all.

“ It has only been a year since I first met Beth, but her sweetness and gentleness have made a lasting impression on my life. The best memories are of her when I had the privilege of reading to a small group of ladies and playing bingo with her and some other residents. I will miss her lovely smile and her kind words. She was a special lady.

“ Dear Joyce and family,

I'm so sorry to hear of Betty's passing and so joyful for her to be home with our Lord.

I'm so grateful to all of you for looking after mom and your kindness towards her.. and us. You were wonderful and true 'neighbors'.

I'm sure there's some kind of reunion going on in heaven.

May God's peace and comfort be with you all....

Love, Cindy
