

Linda Savelesky

November 4, 1944 - May 12, 2019

Linda Savelesky (Draper), 74, a Stratford, Washington resident from 1982 to 2019, passed away at home on Sunday, May 12, 2019. She was a Wilbur, Washington resident from birth to 1982. Born in Grand Coulee, Washington in 1944, Linda graduated Wilbur High School in 1963 and attended Kinman Business School for one year. Linda drove wheat truck for 20 years on the Draper family ranch, worked for six years at Country Gardens in Soap Lake, Washington, and Animal Tracks Veterinary Clinic in Ephrata, Washington for 11 years. Linda loved working in her garden, growing flowers, maintaining her yard, and camping at Camp Na-Bor-Lee has always been a favorite. She enjoyed raising rabbits and being a 4-H leader while the boys were growing up. She was a talented seamstress who gave quilting and sewing classes in Soap Lake and entered her own quilts in the Lincoln and Grant county fairs, winning many awards. She is survived by her husband Dave Savelesky; her mother Lila Draper; siblings Susan Randel, Gayle Bunnell, and Patti Bunnell; sons Donal Savelesky and Doug Savelesky; and grandson Austin Savelesky. Memorial gifts may be made to the American Cancer Society or Assured Hospice of Moses Lake, Washington in place of flowers. Services will be held at the Wilson Creek School Commons, 400 Navar Street, Wilson Creek, Washington on Thursday, May 23, 2019, from 4:30–5:30 p.m.; reception with a light meal to follow.

Events

---

MAY   Service   04:30PM - 05:30PM

23

---

Wilson Creek School Commons

400 Navar St, Wilson Creek, WA, US, 98860

Comments

---

“ Linda was a "tough old bird", I admired her greatly. She was always impeccably dressed, made up, nails done and had a smile on her face in spite of her medical problems. Yes, I'm sure there were bad days, but Linda faced her death the way she lived her life----full of grace. This special lady will be forever loved and missed by all who knew her.

Katy - May 19, 2019 at 10:00 AM