“ I just wanted to say that it was an honor to know "Bud". He was a great father and husband. I think the world would be a better place if there were more people like Bud. I am sorry for your loss, Judy and family. Love, Ryan Albrandt and family.

“ *There will come a day
when your tears of sorrow will softly flow into tears of remembrance...
and your heart will begin to heal itself...
and grieving will be interrupted by episodes of joy...
and you will hear the whisper of hope.
There will come a day
when you will welcome the tears of remembrance...
as a sun shower of the soul...
a turning of the tide...
a promise of peace.
There will come a day when you will...
risk loving...
go on believing...

“ I see your pain and want to banish it with the wave of a star, but I have no star. I see your tears and want to dry them with the hem of an angel's gown, but have no angel. I see your heart fallen to the ground and want to return it wrapped clothes woven of rainbow but have no rainbow. God is the one who has stars, and angels, and rainbows, and I am the one God sends to sit beside you until the stars come out and the angels dry your tears and your heart is back in place, rainbow blessed.

Our prayers are with you during this difficult time.
