“ When I moved here in 2003 Alia was the first person I met. She was tending bar at the Eagles club. She was a kick in the pants. We became friends after awhile. We were good friends for along time. Even though we had a falling out but I thought of her often. Within the last month or so we were just starting to talk again. She will b greatly missed by myself and many others. But she's gone to be with God and all her pain is gone. RIP ALIA
