Andy Russell "Russ" Hall November 17, 1951 – July 4, 2025

Andy Russell Hall, known to friends and family as "Russ," passed away peacefully on July 4, 2025, at McKay Medical Center in Soap Lake, Washington, at the age of 73.

Born November 17, 1951, in Norwood, Missouri, to Clarence and Marie Hall, Russ was raised in Peshastin, Washington, with his brother and sister. He proudly served in the U.S. Navy, where he was stationed in Guam, an experience he often spoke of with fondness and pride.

A true "jack of all trades and master of none," Russ loved working with his hands, helping others, and tackling any project that came his way. He enjoyed searching for wild mushrooms, spending time outdoors, and the occasional trip to the casino, where slot machines were his favorite pastime.

Though divorced, Russ and his former wife remained good friends, sharing mutual respect and lasting memories.

He is survived by his two sons, four grandchildren, and sister, who will remember his generous heart, humor, and kindness.

Russ will be deeply missed by those who knew him and loved him.

“ I went to school with Russ, and I never knew his name was Andy. I haven't seen him in years, but remember Russ as a very kind classmate. My condolences to the family. It's a leaf on the family tree that will be missed.
