

Angeline Bernadine Fuchs

March 23, 1939 - January 23, 2021

Angeline Bernadine Fuchs, loving wife, mother, and grandmother, under the care of Assured Hospice, passed away peacefully at home in Ephrata, Washington surrounded by her family.

She was born on March 23, 1939 in Keuterville, Idaho to Frank and Agnes (Uhlenkott) Reichlin.

On September 5, 1959, Angeline married Clarence Fuchs at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Cottonwood, Idaho and enjoyed more than 61 years of married life together. They moved to Ephrata, Washington in 1965, raised 12 children and resided there until her death. She was a member of the St. Rose of Lima Catholic parish.

Angeline is survived by her beloved husband Clarence; her children, Joe Fuchs (Patti), Jane Gerrer (Dave), Jean Lagerquist (Rob), Cindy Alexander (Clint), Tina Fuchs (Julie Heilman), Tim Fuchs (Rita), Tom Fuchs (Colleen), Jim Fuchs (Karen), Bob Fuchs (Lori), Gerry Fuchs (Lisa), Deanna Kelly (James), and Chris Fuchs (Karlee); 30 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren; and her siblings Francis Reichlin, Theresa Shears (David) and Kathleen Steinke (Jim). She was preceded in death by her parents, 2 brothers (David and Ambrose) and 4 sisters (Sr. Agnes Reichlin, Ann Grant, Rose Wallace, and Hildie Miller).

Due to COVID-19 restrictions, a small private funeral and graveside service were held Thursday, January 28. Arrangements coordinated by Nicole's Funeral Home. The family wishes to thank Assured Hospice of Moses Lake for their support and care. Memorial contributions can be made to Assured Hospice of Moses Lake, Washington and to St. Rose of Lima Catholic School in Ephrata, Washington
