

Ann "Annie" Carrigan

June 11, 1956 - January 27, 2017

Annie Carrigan passed away Friday, January 27, 2017 in Wenatchee from pancreatic cancer. She was born June 11, 1956 in Anacortes, WA to LeRoy and Virginia Jacobs. At the age of 14, she moved with her family to Monroe, WA where her dad opened a NAPA store. She graduated from Monroe High School in 1974 and married Ron Bredstrand in 1975. They divorced in 1990. After marrying Danny Carrigan in 1991, they moved to Moses Lake in 1992. Annie went to work for Basin Asphalt, driving a dump truck for 16 years. In 2005, she moved to Ephrata and was employed by Central WA Concrete until total hip surgery in 2012.

In 2013, Annie's dad relocated to Ephrata to live with her and she cared for him until he passed away in early 2014. She then went to work for the Ephrata School District, driving a school bus until being diagnosed with pancreatic cancer in Sept. 2016.

Annie is survived by her black lab, Emma; sister Laura (Curt) Bry and brother Bill (Tammy) Jacobs. She also leaves her nephews and nieces: Andrew (Shanthi) Bry and great niece, Amelia; Matt (Rachel) Bry; Caitlin Bry (Paul Churchill) and Seth Jacobs. Annie leaves behind her many close friends and co-workers, both past and present, whose friendships she cherished.

Annie's service will be held at Nicoles Funeral Home on Saturday, February 4, 2017 at 11 a.m. Viewing will begin at 9 a.m. until the service begins.

Following the service, please join family and friends at Time Out Pizza for a no-host lunch.

In lieu of flowers, Annie would appreciate remembrances be made to your local animal shelter.

Thank you to the Hospice nurses, for your care and support during this difficult time. Please express your thoughts and memories for the family at www.nicolesfuneralhome.com. Arrangements are under the care of Nicoles Funeral Home of Ephrata, WA.

I was so sorry to see this in the Everett Herald. Annie was my first friend when I moved back to Snohomish from out-of-state. I knew her in the late 1980's and through her move to Moses Lake. We lost touch the last few years but her wonderful laugh and those beautiful blue eyes of hers will be a fond memory to me. My thoughts and prayers to her family. Holly and Greg McDonald
