“ Dear Mike,

I am so sorry about Ann's passing... saddened also to learn of the agonizing ordeal that was hers - and yours - to bear for her last year. Gone too soon, she deserved many thousands more sunsets next to you.

Ann occupies a special place in my heart because she step-mothered my beloved sons with respect and kindness. Adam and John were already adolescents when Ann became your wife but she embraced them as her own during all the weekend and summer visitations that remained until they finally 'launched'. The home Ann created with you was another island of comfort and security for them. Together, you and Ann were a tremendous Blessing to the boys and I remain grateful to this day.

I believe our souls toil lovingly in the background of our grief, cradling us, counting our tears as we journey. May you feel the peace of their toil. May you take comfort in the precious memories of the life you shared with Ann.

My prayers linger with you, Mike, and no doubt are included with those of many others who have stepped forward to love and support you in this dark season.

Please know that you may call or write any time, for any reason.

“ Hi I am Marge's oldest sister, and Ann was like another sister to me. I remember her as a fun loving young lady who always smiled. To Mike and Vaso, my condolences. I have been praying for Ann and now she is with God. Rest in peace my friend. Carol Anne

“ Ann and I have known each other for 50 years. My family moved next door to her family in 1962. There have been laughs and tears over the years. Our adult lives took us in different directions but we stayed in contact. My sons had a part in her wedding to Mike. I'll miss you Ann.
