“ I remember the meals we all had together. Whether it was at our house, grandma & grandpas Smiths house, or Aunt Ann’s & Uncle Andrew’s house on the block 71farm. It was always a family dinner! Always special. It never got old.
In the spring & summer Aunt Ann would make yeast donuts! The smell would not only fill the house, you could smell them across 20 acres.
If she was alone in the house, it wasn’t long before all the cousins and my brother and I were standing right there watching the donuts fry. Ah the smell!!! The taste was even better!
Never forget the home made ice cream made in the old White Mountain ice cream maker in her front yard under that giant Silver Leaf Maple. Pulling the paddles and all of us sharing the first tastes together is invaluable!!!
The memories continue to fill my thoughts to this day. My aunt is a good a faithful Christian.
She, as all of our family that has blazed the trails before us will be dearly missed.
