

Barbara E McClung

January 5, 1954 - February 1, 2023

Barbara E McClung, 69, of Soap Lake, passed away peacefully on the morning of February 1, 2023, at home where she lived with her eldest daughter the last several years.

Barb was born in Nespelem, Washington on January 5, 1954. She lived most of her life in Colville, Washington. She has been a Soap Lake resident for over 20 years.

Barb loved her Lord Jesus Christ, playing computer games, and spending time with her loved ones.

Barb is preceded in death by her parents, Daniel and Donna McClung, sister Christine and brother Joseph McClung. She is survived by her sister, Penny Bashe, brother-in-law, Jeff Bashe, sister Jacqueline McClung, brother Daniel McClung, sister Samantha Brady, her son Nathan Brown, daughter Amanda Tuetken, son-in-law Jack Tuetken, daughter Lucy Floyd, eight grandchildren, many great grandchildren and lots of nieces and nephews.

Barb impacted many lives while she was here. She will always be loved and missed by those who knew her.

Barb will be cremated and a celebration of life will be held in the spring of this year.

Tribute Wall

PB

“ Penelope Bashe lit a candle in memory of Barbara McClung

---

Penelope Bashe - February 16, 2023 at 02:54 PM

PB

“ I will miss you always, my beautiful sister! I remember that you were my idol when I was a little girl and then my best friend for so many, many years. I always admired how courageous and carefree you were in our partying years. You were always there for me and I owe you so much. You always said that you got to name me and that I was yours from the very beginning. I always will be. I love you!

---

Penelope Bashe - February 16, 2023 at 02:54 PM

JB

“ OMG! I know you've been in failing health but I can't believe your gone! It seems like yesterday we were partying hearty, What a good girl you were !, I look forward to all of use meeting up again to continue the party! Love you Barb.

---

jeff bashe - February 15, 2023 at 11:18 PM