“ I didn't know her well but at the last family reunion my mom and I attended, she never left my side making sure I was introduced to everyone and had food , basically anything I needed. She is who I remember the most when I think about that reunion. She was so sweet and made me feel so welcome and comfortable. We sat and talked (mainly about the WHOLE family, who came from who, etc. Basically how we were all related) We got stumped a few times and laughed alot. I'm glad that is the memory I have of her and it makes me smile. But i know she's at peace and with the Lord probably still laughing. That also makes me smile :)##imported-begin##Tracy Johnson(Pam Johnson-Paxton (Odegard)'s daughter)##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to hear about my cousin's passing. I am Harry's daughter, I remember when betty was born. Unfortunately,being in seattle,we didn't really get to know each other as well as we should have.But, last year ,at the family reunion,it was like we knew each other well. I will cherish that weekend for ever. Unfortunately,I cannot make it to her service. as we have another obligation for another person, that resently passed away,also. My prayers and thoughts,and memories will be with you on this day,also. I love you all, and we need to stay in touch--more often. We are all we have as the Odegard"s left!! love you all--pam###imported-begin##pam paxton/johnson###imported-end##

“ An angel was arranging the Lord's upper room, in the windows of Heaven where pretty flowers bloom.
The angel said, Lord, you'd better take heed,
in this vacant spot, another bud you need.
The Lord looked down and said right away,
Go down to earth and gather another bud for my bouquet.
So the angel was off, in the wisk of a sigh,
Looking for buds, passing big flowers by.
He passed many buds that gleamed and shined,
But for some reason they were not the right kind.
Then suddenly there stood a bud so ruby and fair,
This is the one, said the angel,
that the Lord wants up there!
So he snapped it quickly, this blossom to gain,
For he didn't want it to feel any pain.
And away they went, back to the Master's land.
The angel leading the bud, they walked hand in hand.
Here's your bud, Lord, the angel was sighing,
But I left many big flowers down there crying.
The Lord turned around, He said, I have all power,
I'll send new strength to the heart broken flowers.
My spirit shall call them, if they live for Me.
Then some glad morning, their blossom, they'll see.
As the time goes on, their visions will grow dimmer,
Their deep wounds will heal,
but their bud they'll remember.
They know the Lord giveth, and the Lord taketh away,
And the Lord needed their bud,
for "HIS SPECIAL BOUQUET".

*You are in our thoughts and prayers Dale.##imported-

“ I love you Aunt Betty. I cant believe how fast you came and how fast you went. I'm glad I was one of the people who got to know you and see how much love you can give. You have been a big influence on my life and always will be. I will follow your advice and remember you always. I'm not as sad as I was when I found out that you had passed, because now I know you have no more pain. I'm just confused now, because all of my pictures in my room have been tipped. “ I first heard of cousin Betty March 26th 1958 when my dad announced that Aunt Ruth had a new baby girl Betty Kathryn Zundel. I was in the 8th grade. We moved away from Soap Lake but Cousin Betty stepped into our place and took care of Uncle Tony for years.

Betty married Dale July 19, 1980 and they made their home all of these years in Ephrata. She was a stranger to no one and showed attention and caring to everyone she met; whether it was a relative or a friend.

We would meet yearly at the cemetery after she had decorated all of the relatives gravesites and we would say something about each. She loved her mother and missed her so much. I held her as she cried once again at Aunt Ruths grave.

She loved keeping in touch with e-mail; then Facebook and made the lives of all of us more complete by keeping us connected. I thank her for he attention and love she has given to my famiy, Dad, Pat, Jeana, Mykal Keith and myself.

Betty, we will carry your smile and your love in our hearts and minds.Our heartfelt sympathy to all of your family;your cousin,Bonnie##imported-begin##Bonnie Holt-Morehouse##imported-end##

“ I don't believe there was ever a word of no or not now from Aunt Betty. She was always there for anyone at anytime. She was always doing for others with little in return. God loaned her to us for such a short time. I guess he really needed her more in Heaven then down here on Earth. Aunt Betty you will truly be missed by all.###imported-begin##Joann Welch###imported-end##

“ Betty has been a huge part of my life for the past twenty years. She has watched and helped me grow. She is a spectacular "Aunt Betty" to our two boys, Deryck and Hunter, and I know their biggest fan. Betty is famous for always saying she "loves to watch men work". She watched while there was roofing, painting, etc. going on and loved to say "You missed a spot" and then she would giggle. Miss Betty's wonderful, contagious giggle that filled our hearts. We will all miss her more than words can say, but would never trade the time we have had her by our sides.

Love you always,
Derek, Shauna, Deryck, & Hunter##imported-begin##Shauna Jay##imported-end##
