“ My momma was the most beautiful, kindest soul I have ever met. She would give her shirt off her back if it meant someone else would be warm, she would give up a meal for someone else to eat. She raised many children besides her own, her door was always open. I am going to miss her always and forever. She loved fishing, camping the most. I will always have some of my greatest memories of my momma fishing. She loved winter it was her favorite time of the year, she could hardly wait until it snowed, I am going to miss how her face lit up from watching the first snow of the year. ”
