“ Carol was a table mate, in the dining room here at Hearthstone Cottage. At first, she was a very quiet, shy, soft spoken person. But, as she found out what a "rowdy" group of ladies we were, she slowly opened up, to show us her sense of humor, and her compassion when it was needed. I remember telling the ladies a very funny story about my husband Bob, who at the time was a resident on the memory care floor at Highline. Carol took her glasses off, wiping her eyes, saying she hadn't laughed that hard in "forever"

My son, Dan Cowin, who drives for Stemilt, and I wish to send you our heart felt sympathy.

And Terry, thank you for taking the time to keep us informed.

“ I was saddened to know that Carol has passed away. We first knew her when we became neighbors on H Street in March of 2011. We enjoyed knowing both she and Fritz until he passed away. I missed visiting with her after she moved to East Wenatchee. I admired her art work very much. She was a wonderful neighbor. My husband, Bill, passed away in October of this year. Now I am alone in the house "across the street" from Carol and Fritz. We enjoyed our brief time with the Schwab family. My sympathy to Terry, Mike, Mary Jane and Bill.
