

Charlotte Lynn Velasquez

March 11, 1967 - August 30, 2022

Charlotte Velasquez went to heaven August 30th, 2022. She was 55 years years young and was born March 11th 1967 in Santa Maria California. Charlotte lived in Santa Maria California for 22 years where she met the love of her life Antonio Vargas. She welcomed her first son Marco Velasquez on February 27th, 1983 born in Santa Maria California, and her second born Frank Velasquez December 30th 1988. Her life then moved to Soap Lake Washington in 1989 where her and Antonio would spend the rest of their lives together raising their four children. Shortly after moving to Soap Lake, WA Charlotte and Antonio welcomed their third child and only daughter Anjelica Vargas, February 26th 1993, and their youngest son Albert Vargas June 5th 1998 both born in Moses Lake, WA. Antonio worked long hours for their family, and Charlotte spent her days driving the kids to events. Charlotte strived to always have a welcoming home and became a second mom to all the neighborhood kids and the endless friends her four children brought home. She enjoyed cooking, joy rides around the town of Soap Lake, summer days and BBQs with her family and most importantly always being involved in her kids and grandchildren's lives. Charlotte leaves behind her husband of 33 years, Antonio Vargas and her youngest son Albert; oldest son Marco and his three children Maximus, Mason and Emma and mother of his children Rachael; Frank and his wife Stevie, their three children Avah, Cannon and Haven; and Anjelica, her husband Ted, and their two children Aubrey and Zayne. Charlotte will be deeply missed by the community, many many amazing friends and of course, her family.

“ There are so many times that Charlotte and I spent together. We both loved our children and Marco and Adam Pfeifer grew up together so Charlotte and I were close. I love all of Charlottes family. She'd always gave me up dates on their lives as well as the lives of her beloved grandchildren. As I did her. I'll miss her terribly and will never forget her !!! I love you Charlotte and may you always watch over your family from heaven !!! God knows I will continue to watch your children and grandchildren grow !!!
