“ Chet was a lot of fun to be around and a good enough golfer to beat my dad, Bill Roche, more times than Dad liked. He was always involved in helping others. He was a friend in deed. God bless him and comfort Shirley during this difficult time.

“ Chet was a wonderful, giving and caring man who will be dearly missed. He was a joyful and fun person who was always helping and doing so much for others. To know Chet was to appreciate and love him. He and Shirley were great friends to my parents, Bill and Berna Roche. They golfed, travelled and did lots of laughing together. He is remembered fondly by our whole family. His is a life well lived. Our thoughts and prayers are with Shirley. Love, Bev (Roche) Chandler
