

Cody Hodge

August 15, 1961 - October 18, 2024

Cody was born in Summersville, Missouri on Aug 15, 1961.

Known for his golden voice, Cody made a lasting impact as a rodeo announcer and auctioneer. Whether he was calling bids or bringing life to a rodeo arena, his voice carried warmth, excitement, and a deep sense of presence. He almost never met a stranger – his friendly nature and easy conversation made everyone feel like they belonged.

Cody is survived by his finance, Janet Schafer, his children, Chase Hodge, Garrett Hodge and Gabbi Hernandez. He was blessed with 12 grandchildren. His siblings, Daniel Taylor, Thelma Jean Crider, Jim Hodge, Harold Hodge, Paul Hodge, Tony Hodge, Colleen Hodge-Nikkari, Sonjia Hodge, and Stoney Hodge.

He was preceded in death by his Grandparents, Father Guern Hodge, Mother Lela Hodge-Cooper, brother Ricky Hodge Sr., aunts, uncles and cousins.

His grandson Wade A. Hodge proceeds him and is now united for eternity.
