

Daton Allen Garnes

September 20, 1974 - July 25, 2023

Daton Allen Garnes, born on September 20, 1974. He departed this world on July 25, 2023, in Soap Lake, Washington.

Daton's journey was one fueled by his unwavering passions. A devoted drag racing enthusiast, he lived life in the fast lane. Whether racing down the track or reviving classic cars, his dedication to car restoration was unmatched. The thrill of snowmobiling and boating were among his cherished moments, as he embraced the open waters and snowy terrains.

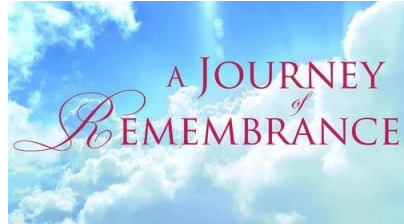

Daton's zest for life extended beyond engines and adrenaline. A skilled bowler, his strikes and spares were a testament to his competitive spirit. Amidst the thrill-seeking, he held dear his family and loved ones. Survived by his sister Kerstin, niece Alicia, and nephew Trevor, his legacy lives on through them. His loving girlfriend Brooke stood by his side through thick and thin, adding to the tapestry of his life.

As Daton reunites with his parents, Rosie and Daton in the embrace of eternity, we remember a life well-lived and passions pursued with fervor. In our hearts, he will forever remain the embodiment of dedication, adventure, and love.
