

Debra Shirleen Everson

August 6, 1952 - April 17, 2025

On April 17, 2025, our beloved mother, wife, grandmother, great-grandmother, Debra (Debbie) Shirleen Everson went to heaven. She was loved beyond measure.

Born August 6, 1952 (72), Debbie, passed away at home (Ephrata, WA. Transplanted from East Wenatchee, WA.) with her daughter Karen by her side.

She leaves behind her devoted husband, William H. Everson, daughters, Amy K. Jones, Son-in-Law Scott A. Jones, grandsons, William D. Jones, Alexander J. Jones; daughter Karen R. Everson, Son-in-law Bret Henry, granddaughters Gabryal R. Jones, Madalyn B. Jones, great-granddaughters Alyviah R. Jones, Brooklyn D. Thomas; daughter Sara E. Toro Everson, Son-in-law Alfredo Toro, granddaughters Kathrene L. Dawson, Kyerra E. Toro, Abby L. Toro.

She enjoyed the sunshine, gardening, and her grandchildren. Her happiest moments were camping at Banks Lake with the family, preferable in the sunshine, every year around her birthday.

She wanted to be buried close to family so she could be visited, and we could bring her flowers. Her favorites, morning glory, carnations, sunflowers, who are we trying to kid, any flower. She had a green thumb and could grow anything in any conditions. Her garden was her life. Her grandchildren were her greatest love. Her greatest gift was being “Granny”.

There will be a graveside service April 28th, 2025, 1 PM, Ephrata Cemetery, Ephrata, WA.
