

Guadalupe Medina Valdez

August 23, 1954 - July 20, 2020

Guadalupe Medina Valdez aka "Cuatete", 65, of Ephrata, Washington, passed away peacefully at Sacred Heart Medical Center in Spokane, Washington. He was born in 1954 in Michoacan , Mexico to Maria De Jesus Valdez and Daniel Medina. Guadalupe was married to Ofelia Medina in March of 1993, but have been living together since October 1985. Guadalupe is survived by his wife, Ofelia and his daughters: Maria of Wenatchee, Rosa of Ephrata, Ofelia (Offy) of Ephrata, and Cristina of Mexico. Guadalupe was preceded in death by his youngest daughter, Lupita Medina at the age of 19 in July 2014. Guadalupe was a cheerful person that dearly loved his 5 daughters and 5 granddaughters. He was the life of every party and he enjoyed playing poker with his poker friends. Although he only had 5 kids, he was a father figure to many more and helped many get back on their feet. Everyone always received the best version of him and he will be remembered by many.
