

Hal Read Leedy

January 2, 1948 - February 12, 2018

Hal Read (Butch) Leedy, 70, died Monday, February 12, 2018, at his home in Ephrata, Washington. Hal, originally from Bean Station, TN was preceded in death by his parents Xan Ray and Virginia Read Leedy. A graduate of the University of Tennessee, Hal spent his working years primarily with Citizens Bank & Trust of Grainger County and retired from Willow Drive Nursery in Ephrata. Hal is survived by his devoted partner Lori Coletti; son, Taver (Amy) Leedy; daughter, Sarah Leedy; granddaughter, Grace Leedy; sister, Susan Leedy Luker and a host of great friends made throughout the years from the banking and beef cattle industries. Private arrangements according to Hal's wishes are being handled by Nicoles Funeral Home in Ephrata.

Tribute Wall

JA

“ Hal was a great guy and a dear friend. My prayers go out to Hal and his family. I will miss you.

John Antosz

John Antosz - February 20, 2018 at 11:03 PM

LO

“ Rest in peace I remember you and your family from high school in the mid 60s. Prayers for your family and friends.

*Larry A Owens
Rutledge High Class 1966*

Larry A Owens - February 13, 2018 at 05:16 PM