“ My Dad was a man of few words, but I always knew when he was proud of me. I remember winning a race and pulling in the pits and I would see him there waiting for me. I shut the car off and looked up and he was leaning in the window with a smile. I said how did I do he said Ok but you missed the last corner and you should have got the lead sooner. LOL He had high standards especially when it came to racing. He is and always will be the reason that there is Hector Racing.

“ Just spoke with Gary, Patty's husband. He shared a story I had never heard. It went like this:

"Patty really liked Hillery, she looked on him as an older brother. Hillery would say " I'm going fishing in the morning."

Patty would say "What time?"

Hillery would say "3 AM."

Patty would say "Pick me up and I will go with you."

Hillery would come by and Patty was up and ready. She would spend the day with him ...He was a good man. "

“ RIP Hillery, I am at a loss for words, my first memories of you are when I was just a little girl. You were daddy's friend and compition on the racetrack. The respect you showed your fellow drivers I still remember. You were always there to lend a hand, part or even one of the kids to help someone. You will live on in the hearts of your friends and family for generations to come, you can be proud of them as they are of you. You will be missed.
