

Jill Liane Bessett-Gansauge

December 10, 1965 - December 23, 2019

SOAP LAKE - Jill Liane Bessett-Gansauge, age 54, of Soap Lake passed away on Monday, December 23, 2019, after a long illness. She was a graduate of Soap Lake High School and attended Big Bend Community College.

Having many hobbies, Jill was an avid gardener, enjoyed taking the pontoon boats out on Soap Lake with her husband, loved raising numerous dogs over the years, enjoyed fishing and going on long drives to nowhere. Camping with family and friends was particularly fun as she enjoyed the camaraderie.

Playing card games was always a fun time with Jill as she was silly and cheerful and loved to tease. She enjoyed going to yard sales and second-hand stores with her mother and husband. Another in a long list of hobbies of Jill's was jewelry making. She made beautiful earrings, necklaces, and rings and enjoyed the attention to detail that was necessary to make quality jewelry.

Jill worked on ancestry research for many years and relished finding new family members and interesting stories. Photographs line her walls as photography was another of her passions, including taking photographs of the nieces and nephews and great-nieces and great-nephews she so cherished. Not having any children of her own, Jill heaped her love and devotion on them all with slumber parties, yard games, and as they got a little older a listening ear. They adore their Aunt Jill.

Jill was born in Santa Maria, California, on December 10, 1965, and grew up in Soap Lake, Washington. She was the daughter of Norman H. and Barbara

A. (Griffith) Bessett, her father having predeceased her in 1999. In May 1988 Jill married her high school sweetheart, Jeffery H. Gansauge, and they continued to reside in the Soap Lake – Ephrata area.

Jill was predeceased in death by her father, Norman H. Bessett. She is survived by her loving husband, Jeff, at the home; her mother, Barbara Bessett, Soap Lake; her six siblings: Jim Bessett, Yakima; Teresa Bessett, Mount Vernon; Anita Evans, Soap Lake; Nanine Locke, Auburn; Donn Cook and her husband, Kim, Soap Lake; Jerry Bessett, Moses Lake. She is also survived by 11 nieces and nephews and 7 greatnieces and great-nephews. She is also survived by numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“ I am deeply saddened that God needed to take you so soon. You and Jeff have become good friends again. Friends I had in my childhood and was looking forward to enjoying in our later years. Rest in peace my friend. I am reminded of this poem but I had to edit a couple of words to make it fit. This is for Jeff. Stop all the clocks, cut off the telephone.

*Prevent the dog from barking with a juicy bone,
Silence the pianos and with muffled drum
Bring out the coffin, let the mourners come.*

*Let aeroplanes circle moaning overhead
Scribbling in the sky the message she is Dead,
Put crêpe bows round the white necks of the public doves,
Let the traffic policemen wear black cotton gloves.*

*She was my North, my South, my East and West,
My working week and my Sunday rest
My noon, my midnight, my talk, my song;
I thought that love would last forever, I was wrong.*

*The stars are not wanted now; put out every one,
Pack up the moon and dismantle the sun.
Pour away the ocean and sweep up the wood;
For nothing now can ever come to any good. Well we're praying for everyone who is in mourning. We pray peace and healing to all who love Jill. God Bless... The Ledgerwoods.*

You were much more than my wife, you were my life long best friend. We've been through the best of times and the worst of times and we were always there for each other.
I'm going to miss you terribly, you were taken too soon. You are the bravest person I know, I could never endure what you've been through. I wish I could of taken your pain away , you will always be in my heart forever and I will see you again someday.

“ I love you, sister! We've shared years and years of memories and I will cherish every single one. I am grateful that there will be no more pain for you. I'll love and think of you everyday. Christmas was always your favorite time of year so it was apropos that this was your time to leave us. Love always and in all ways, Donn

*"Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.*

*When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there, I did not die."*
