“ Dear Junabelle,

We shall miss you so. But we know you are certainly alive. You are within the embrace of our Lord Jesus Christ. You have witnessed His smiling countenance and have been welcomed into Heaven where so many have waited for you. Jesus gave you a good life on this earth, however, He has now called you home where there is no longer any tears, sorrow, guilt or darkness. Truth, happiness, and the peace of our Lord now resides within you forever.

God Bless You Junabelle, we shall meet once again.
