“ I just read about this and I very sorry to hear that Kevin is gone.

I met Kevin, Gilbert and Jason in Scouting with Rock as the fearless leader.

It was one heck of fun time, going camping and doing all kind fun stuffs.

Kevin was a really good guy. He was a genuine, very generous in sharing his Boy Scout knowledge and camping material, he was always true to his words and never talked behind anyone. I last saw Kevin at the Junior High...he had a few bad bullies and had a rough go at it. I tried to give him some encouragements. Some very bad characters at that school. I moved away shortly from the area and lost touch.

If there is heaven like most of us believe, Kevin should be there now. RIP buddy.

“ I remember old days like going to the Ballard locks with Lyn Su, Kevin, Tina, Myself and John don't know whom else was with us but that was so much fun. Then being around Kevin so much he got me hooked on KISS the rock band Still today everytime I hear them it reminds me of the good old days and Kevin. R.I.P Kevin “ Kevin will forever be missed. His rottenness, his weird humor and that smile. I'm glad he and I cleaned the slate and are good now. I hope he is at peace. Tina I'm sorry for your loss and we are here for you. Lots of hugs, prayers and love.
