

LeRoy Thomas Friend

May 14, 1931 - June 16, 2022

LeRoy worked for the City of Soap Lake for 33 years before retiring and operating his small hay and cattle farm outside of Soap Lake. LeRoy and his wife were the first couple married in the First Baptist Church of Soap Lake. LeRoy taught Sunday School and was a deacon at the church for over 60 years.

“ Leroy and Florence are in so many of my childhood memories. Leroy always had a smile on his face and an easy laugh. My family shared many meals with them or we would have dessert after Sunday night service. We sure played a lot of board-games! Wonderful memories of a man who loved and served his Lord and Savior. Our condolences to the family. We will see Leroy again some day! Praise the Lord!

“ My favorite memory of Uncle LeRoy was Sunday dinners at Grandma and Grandpa Friend. LeRoy, Pinkie and Dad talking and laughing. Then taking a nap after eating!

“ Florence and Leroy Friend are both some of the very best memories I have of a very difficult childhood. Leroy always made sure to visit us on Saturdays and confirm we would be in church on Sunday. He always had a smile on his face and a hug when we needed it. I will always have fond memories in my heart of the example he set for many of the youth in his time on this earth, He will be missed.
