

Loeva Brown

June 12, 1928 - August 8, 2016

Loeva Brown

Loeva, 88 of Ephrata, Wa passed away on August 8, 2016 in her home surrounded by people who loved her. She was born on June 12, 1928 in Elmo, Missouri to Galen and Nora Neff. Loeva was the eldest of six children: Richard Neff (deceased), Barbara McIntyre (deceased), Carolyn Hamm, Henry Neff (deceased), and Gladys Beckel (deceased).

In 1949, she married Clifford E. Brown moved to Ukiah, Oregon where Clifford worked for a lumber business. In 1961, Loeva and her husband, and their three kids moved to the Columbia Basin where she started work for the Bell Telephone Co, and worked there until her retirement in 1983.

Loeva and her husband bought a cabin in 1974 to enjoy with their kids and their families. In 1988, they sold the cabin and bought twenty acres to build a cabin in the Leavenworth area with her kids and their families: Terry and Debbi Brown, Patty and Richard Stephens, and Sheri and Jack Durham. She loved to spend time with her three children, eleven grandchildren, and twenty great-grandchildren. She was loved by all and will be missed.

Arrangements are under the care of Nicoles Funeral Home of Ephrata, Wa.

Tribute Wall

“ She is loved and missed we will cherish all the beautiful memories we have shared with her and family over the years. ”

jennifer bewick - August 18, 2016 at 10:33 PM

“ A truly sweet lady. Her loss will be deeply felt. ”

Joe Byrd - August 17, 2016 at 09:44 PM