

Murray Lee Reiner

October 3, 1932 - November 26, 2012

MURRAY LEE REINER

Murray Lee Reiner, 80, of Soap Lake, Washington, passed away at his home on Monday, November 26, 2012.

He married

Patricia Lee Hubbard in 1950 and lived in Odessa, Wash., owning and running Reiner's Drive-In after being a butcher at a young age.

He married twice more to Sally Buchmann and Gail Ann Robbins.

Besides butchering, he did manage a bar/restaurant in Waterville, Wash.

Prompted by his brother Darrel, he started an antique business which he successfully ran the last 37 years in Soap Lake, Wash.

He is survived by daughters: Bonnie Grace Rising, Jojean Grimes, and Tana Rae Reiner; a son, Guy Reiner; sisters include: June Norris, Margie Thayer, and Joie Campbell; and a brother, Daniel Reiner.

Murray was preceded in death by his son, Gay Reiner; and his brother, Robert Reiner.

As Murray's special interests were windmills, we are happy to know he is now 'Blowing in the Wind.'

He will be missed by all who knew and loved him.

“ JoJean Grimes Murray's daughter married my father William Grimes, which blessed us with Grandpa Murray in our lives. We had the pleasure to visit him in Soap Lake a few year ago which allowed us to get to know him and his wonderful personality, love for his treasures and much much more. He made a visit last year 2011 allowing him to meet our two boys whom absolutely fell in love with him, as we all have! We love you grandpa and will miss you dearly!

“ Murray was a kind and compassionate person. He was very good to my sister, Bunny whom he married late in life. He was also good to our mom, Irene Foeppe. Murray treated her like a mom, and never said "No" when she invited him over for a dinner. Murray liked her company, and her cooking! We are better for having him in our lives and will miss his smile and laugh.

“ Mur was an awesome guy and wonderful husband to Bunny (Gail), stepfather to Candy and myself, loving son-in-law to Irene Foeppe. We loved him dearly. Whenever I came up to Washington to visit my grandmother after my mother passed, he would always drive to Richland to visit with grama and I. Words cannot express our grief at his passing.
