

Myrtle "Ann" Moritz

May 22, 1925 - September 11, 2020

Myrtle "Ann" Moritz, 95, of Ephrata, Washington, passed away on Friday, September 11, 2020 at Central Washington Hospital in Wenatchee, Washington. Ann was born in San Antonio Texas to August & Myrtle (Sawey) Moritz on May 22, 1925.

She lived in many countries as a daughter of a Baker in the U. S. Army. She met her husband, Earl on a blind date and they were married shortly after World War II ended. They moved to Waterville, WA. and then finally ended up in Ephrata. Ann's husband was a farmer, so she led the life of a farmer's wife. She decided to start a business in Ephrata and was the proud owner of Mode O'Day women's dress shop.

Ann had many fascinating adventures in her life and was a financial backer of some businesses in Ephrata. She was a life long member of Eastern Star.

Ann was preceded in death by her husband, Earl: her daughter Gloria Sager and grandchildren Karla Sager and Joel Carroll. She is survived by children; Russell Moritz and Margie Carroll; 7 grandchildren, 16 great grandchildren, & 7 great great grandchildren.

“ To the family of Ann. My name is Kim Youngers I have had the privilege to be Ann's friend and really felt like she was family to me! Ann was beautiful in and out (as I did her hair for 27 years) she helped me along the way in so many ways through hard times, good times and she put her faith in me in my business and personal life. I will be forever be grateful she was a big part of my life!

I will always think of her when I eat an Apple, she loved apples and I always got them for her and she was always so appreciative!

I lost my mom and grandmother so young and Ann helped In so many ways she was a true friend. She will be missed in so many ways. Until we meet again Ann Moritz!
