

Paul Marvin Dingfield

October 29, 1952 - October 23, 2020

Paul Marvin Dingfield was born in Tacoma, Washington on October 29, 1952 and passed away peacefully at Holy Family Hospital in Spokane, Washington on the 23rd of October 2020. Paul is survived by his three brothers, Michael, Richard and Jeffery Dingfield and his sister, Jane Van Order.

Paul was an adventuresome kid who liked to ride his bike all over the town of Ephrata where he grew up. His bike and his air rifle being his most prized possessions. His mother always bought him husky size jeans from the Sears catalog. So Paul's greatest boast was, "I'm a husky boy"

Paul loved bowling, and participated in the Special Olympics. He enjoyed fishing and going for walks. He also loved the Seattle Seahawks and all the super heroes but most especially, Batman.

Paul lived many happy years at Directions in Community Living (DCL) in Moses Lake, Washington where he had many friends and was much loved.

“ Oh my heart breaks. Paul was an amazing human being who I truly enjoyed having many memories with over the years. May he rest in peace and may the Lord watch over his family during this time. Rest Easy Old Friend. xoxo

“ So saddened to read about Paul's passing. However, I have a big smile on my face thinking about what a wonderful man Paul was. I remember Paul moving from Juniper Ridge to his new home through DCL. He was so happy for his new independence and it was always a pleasure to be with Paul. Rest in peace dear friend. I will never forget you.
