

Phyllis Mae Abbott

March 5, 1925 - May 2, 2019

Phyllis Mae Abbott, age 94, passed away peacefully in Ephrata, WA on May 2nd, 2019.

She was born in Astoria, Oregon on March 5th, 1925 To Thomas and Myrth Thompson.

She married William J. Abbott on August 16, 1947 and they had one son, Patrick W.

Phyllis was a nurse and proud of that. The family moved to Grant Orchards, Soap Lake in the late 40's. She loved her family, enjoyed being outdoors and gardening.

For several years she liked working in Apple packing sheds in both Quincy and Wenatchee, where she also gained life long friendships.

She is survived by her daughter-in-law Gwendolyn Abbott, and her 3 sons, William A. And Sean T. of Bremerton Wa. and Mike M. with his wife Jessy and three children Serra, Summer, and Robert of Arizona.

Phyllis now follows her husband and son into Heaven.

Phyllis was a devoted Christian and donated much of her time and love to the Community Evangelical Free Church. Of Soap Lake. She will be missed, remembered for her spunky, faith filled and delightful spirit.

We will celebrate her life on May 25th at 11:00 A.M.

Community Evangelical Church in Soap Lake.

Please express your thoughts and memories for the family while visiting the online guestbook @ nicolesfuneralhome.com. Arrangements are under the direction of Nicoles Funeral Home of Ephrata, Washington.
