“ I have very fond memories of Sally. I first met Sally in 2009 while I was working at the Methodist church in Ephrata. What I remember the most about her when she would come into my office was how elegant you always was. She was always dressed so beautifully. We became good friends when she asked me if I would help her to write a book about her life. She did all the writing and I did all the typing, etc. After that we did a lot of different things together and I would spend many hours at her house just visiting or reading our books (we both loved to read). The other thing that we both loved was her dog "Slush". I came to know both of her sons (Scott & Sandy) and their families. Sally so loved her family and was so very proud of all of them. My last quality time spent with Sally was this past Mother's day when she invited me to attend the Mother-daughter luncheon with her at Garden Oasis. What an honor that was for me. I will miss you Sally and I know you are up in heaven now playing golf no doubt with your other friends that have gone before you.
