“ Shasta, thank you for everything. Thank you for all the incredible memories, the two awesome sons. They are lucky to have a mother like you, who was always there for them. If they got hurt, in trouble, whether they were right or wrong they always knew they had their mom in their corner. For showing me how to be a better person. You were truly an incredible woman, we never had to guess what was on your mind we all knew. when we got together for things we never had to guess where you were, just had to listen for the loudest voice, the loudest laugh and there you were talking to anyone about anything. Things won't be the same without you, you had a huge heart. Theres so much I wish I had the chance to tell you. I LOVE YOU SHASTA. I cant say goodbye but ill see you later because you will always be in our Hearts, we miss you already.

“ Shasta was so sweet and I'm sad that I didn't know her as well as I wanted to. My husband and I are regulars at the Taco Bell and that's where I met Shasta. Such a wonderful person with a sweet heart. At lunch today, we found out about her passing and I was immediately in tears. I've been looking online since then for her obituary and here it is. Shasta was one of the coolest people on Earth and I'm really sad to see her leave. My heart breaks for her family. May God bless you all and keep you, and bring peace to you. RIP, Shasta. You made such a difference to all of us and you will be missed.

“ Shasta was the "real deal"; She was sincere, and she loved life and her family. The last time I talked with Shasta, she had excitedly told me that she was a Grandma. To the family Shasta has left behind, may God bless you and stay strong. Love and hugs. Mary and John Heston

“ Shasta, 16 yrs girl...i can't believe your gone. When we worked at lees you gave me the best advice on how to handle Jerome when his coffee wasn't made on time. You got me my job at barb and eds giving us the chance to work together again. From raising our kids together, getting in trouble together, supporting one another as we worked like hell to get out of trouble, going to church together, youth group....i could go on and on. You are missed my dear. The kids and i love you. Always

“ Shasta was the epitome of speaking her mind and you knew where you stood. I loved that about her. She was great to her friends and customers and one of the hardest workers I have ever known. May she live in eternal happiness in Heaven.

“ I met Shasta when our sons played baseball together. She was an open book from the very start. She thanked me for trusting her after explaining her past. She was proud of herself and her family. She embraced those who allowed her to. She also felt compelled to help others even when it was a challenge for her. The last time I ran into her she was so excited to talk about her soon to be expanding family and how blessed her life was. I'm stunned and saddened over her passing. I pass my condolences onto her family. The world will miss her light. I know I will. God Bless you Shasta.

“ I didn't know Shasta for long she came to work for me at taco bell and I was instantly drawn to her personality. She was always smiling, always had a story and always ready to do whatever needed to be done. She will be greatly missed and my deepest thoughts and prayers go to her family and loved ones during this time. She will always have a home at taco bell and I hope she knows how much we adored her.
