“ Was saddened to learn of Sid's death. We attended Vale High School and he was a roommate my first quarter at BYU. He could study on the top bunk with his ear no more than two feet from the phone, and never hear the phone ring. I could never master that kind of concentration. I pray God's peace upon you all who knew him and loved him best.

“ My wife and i met sidney and his wife occasionally while he and my wife received medical care in moses lake. I could not have met a nicer man and his relationship seemed to be really special with his wife. They say to trust your first impressions because they are usually right. They both left me feeling they knew love and especially Gods love. I hope the family has peace knowing Sidney is now home with his Father.
