“ Socorro Spanjer will never know the impression she left on me as just her daughter's childhood friend. I witnessed a hard working, fun loving, dutiful mother. Her responsibility, I would not be able to appreciate until I was much older and had the ability to look back on it. Some memories I have are one night she made peanut butter and chocolate candies that were actually better than real Reeces pieces!! I had no idea you could make those at home! My first taste of authentic Mexican cuisine was her home cooking. Wow! Riding with her to bingo one dark night and a rock n roll song came on the radio. She was so excited, singing and dancing in her seat as I found out that was her favorite song. Good times. Missed and loved. To her family, I am so very sorry for your loss. She's singing and dancing with the angels now.
