

Stanley James Creek

July 22, 1952 - September 11, 2022

Stanley James Creek

On Sunday, September 11, 2022, Stanley J. Creek, 70, peacefully passed away from pneumonia and other health conditions, from Columbia Basin Hospital with his beloved Husband by his side. He was 70 years old.

Stanley was born in Leavenworth, WA to Dorothy Cordell and Dale Creek and grew up along with his brother's Gary, Stacey Lee and sister Phillis in Wenatchee, WA. He graduated in Wenatchee Highschool and Joined the Navy in 1971 and embark on a journey exploring what the world has to offer.

After His release from his service and experimenting different jobs. Stanley landed a job in Conagra Foods also known as Lambweston Quincy and rendered his service as a Package operator for more than 30 years at the company along with his bestfriend from Highschool Diane Martinez.

Stanley spends his retirement days hanging out with his friends and traveling the world. He was loved by many for his antics and humor.

You will be missed