

Terry D Brown

March 11, 1951 - December 12, 2021

Terry D. Brown, 70 years old from Ephrata, WA., passed away unexpectedly on December 12, 2021.

Terry was born on March 11, 1951 in Pendleton OR. To Clifford and Loeva Brown, shortly followed by his younger sisters, Patricia Stephens and Sheri Durham.

Terry attended and graduated from Soap Lake High School. While going to school he met and remained lifelong friends with Gary Darling (AKA Uncle Gary by the family). Mr. Brown always taught his family the value of hard work. He was a baker for several years, then worked for the Columbia Basin Irrigation District. He worked for 35 years or more at the Irrigation District, as a ditch rider before he retired as a watermaster.

Terry met and married the love of his life, Debbi Dean. They made a wonderful life together with their blended family. Family was the most important thing to him. There were no stepchildren, we were all just his kids like it or not.

Washell (Jerry) Cowgill, Jack (Becky) Leingang, James (Robyn) Leingang, Tyler (Lee) Brown, and Morgan Brown. He was blessed with many grandchildren, nieces, and nephews, which he loved beyond words.

Terry was preceded in death by Clifford and Loeva Brown, his daughter Morgan Brown, and his brother -in-law Richard Stephens.

We will not say goodbye, but see you later and thanks for being the guy that always stepped up and dared to love us.
