

Vera M Walker (Buhler)

April 11, 1930 - April 6, 2026

Vera M. Walker (Bluher)

Loving wife, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother sadly passed away on April 6, 2026.

Born April 11, 1930, she lived a long substantial life. Born to John and Myrtle Bluher (Filson) in Meadowbrook, WA. She was the youngest of 12 children. At 19, she met the one and only love of her life, Alvin V. Walker and on June 18, 1949, she married Alvin. They lived a happily together until Alvin's death in 1998.

A son Dale was born in 1952, and another son Calvin was born in 1958.

The family enjoyed growing up on several farms started by Alvin and Vera, Valley Poultry Farm (Snoqualmie) and another farm in the Columbia Basin. Vera enjoyed the life of a farm wife, helping with the daily chores and raising her children. She also had a long career at Lamb Weston working in manifest at the Quincy plant.

Vera enjoyed quality time with her family, son Dale (Vel), son Calvin (Patty), grandson Brian, granddaughter Tami (Ryan), great-grandsons Gunner and Cannon who at a younger age, called her Banana.

A celebration of life will be scheduled at a later date.

Tribute Wall

“aw, I knew I knew that name, I worked at Lambs Weston, maybe not along side her but she was in Manifest so I saw her about every day and she as always smiling. A really nice person. I'm sorry for your loss.

Dawn Schmider Cummings - April 16 at 10:08 PM